

Want to Improve your Job Skills, Learn a New Trade, or Pursue a Degree?
Apply for an Ag Health Benefits Alliance Scholarship!

The AHBA scholarships are exclusively for group health participants, their legal spouses, their children and grandchildren (under age 25).

Two Kinds of Scholarships	Learn More
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vocational scholarships are to study at a trade school, job-training, or certificate program in California. Vocational applications are accepted twice per year: From March 1 – 31 and from June 1 – 30. • Academic scholarships are to study at any college or university. Academic applications are accepted once per year: From March 1 – 31. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Go to: www.aghealthbenefits.org • Call us: (707) 963-7191 • Hover over the QR code below:
Scholarships are available in amounts up to $5,000 per person.

“Graduating from college has been my biggest dream ever since middle school... My parents are immigrants and did not get the privilege to finish high school or attend college. My college journey is not only mine but also my parents’. They have shown me that with hard work and dedication anyone can accomplish their biggest dreams.”

-V.D.M.S., Napa
2022 Scholarship Winner

“I firmly believe someone's current economic status doesn't determine their future or limit their dreams; we have the power to change it.”

-S.P.D., Yountville
2021 and 2022 Scholarship
Winner

“The scholarship motivated me to do something I have been wanting to do for a longtime – to make leather handbags. Winning the scholarship is the first step in fulfilling this goal. I am enjoying the classes, the instructors are very nice, and I plan to continue my studies.”

-C.E.E., St Helena
2022 Scholarship Winner